During the ten-day practicum you will: ▪ prepare the eleven presentations of a full weekend retreat
▪ study the rhetoric of the talks ▪ the use of doctrine, stories, personal experience, humor ▪ decide how the Principle & Foundation and the Weeks inform the weekend experience ▪ open the architecture of Annotation 18 in a real-life context ▪ choose what you will put into each talk ▪ examine who the 'typical' retreatants are ▪ wonder what they want from the retreat ▪ outline each of the eleven presentations as you mean to give them ▪ discover the resources you already have ▪ and you will have time for quiet prayer and reflection and sharing with colleagues
