Hotel Florida is a small hotel ideally located in the heart of Rome. It is a two star superior hotel and is situated in the center of the town; just five minutes walk to St. Peter's Square and Basilica in the Vatican city and 45 minutes by car to the airports, there is a good connection to Termini rail-station (metro line A out Ottaviano station or Bus 492 stopping at Via Terenzio). The rooms are comfortable and are provided with all comforts: Bathroom, toilet, direct-lined telephone, TV, hair-dryer, ceiling fan or air conditioning [$13.00 per day], lift, bar services from 8:30 a.m. to 8 p.m., no breakfast. Free services are also included: safety box, telephone waking service, connecting call, left luggage office, booking in tours, train and airplane tickets. Parking facilities are also available at the price of roughly $15.00.

The hotel needs your confirmation fax with your flight details and your credit card number and expiration date, and also they will need your preview time for check in.

You will also have a special 6 % discount if you pay cash. Visa, Mastercard, Eurocard, American Express are accepted, but they will subcharge you 3 %.

Cancellation policy is five days before the arrival; otherwise they will charge you for a no-shown night.

[Special prices only during low season: January, February, August, and November.

If you stay for a minimum period of 6 days you will have an 8 % discount; for a weekend including Sunday (2 days) 8% discount. During August if you stay 3 days 8% discount, for 6 days or more 10% discount.].

The first four I do not know how they are inside, rather nice or squalid (bleak or dreary, etc.).
Hotel Stella instead I have been inside and it's cute. My ex boyfriend (from Assisi) used to go there sometimes and inside we had been told at the time that it had been restructured and it's OK., quite reasonable and not squalid at all to be near the Station.
