

CONTENTS

First Things

Jesuit & lay partners develop a typically ignatian way of associating

At the Frontiers

Joining charism and partnership, kudos for Jesuit law schools, a symposium in Bogotá on experiencing Exercises, globalization and religion, a mandate in France, working together in Maryland

Articles

Rome Consultation 2002

Fr General Peter-Hans Kolvenbach Discourse on Exercises and Co-Workers
Finds four actors in the relationships drawn in the text of Spiritual Exercises

Jenny Go The Journey to Partnership
Tells a story about how demanding it is to create and keep ignatian schools

Hans van Leeuwen, S.J. Spiritual Exercises, a Jesuit & Lay Ministry
Recounts personal and province developments from ground zero

Joyceann Hagen The Impact of Collegueship
A lay Jesuit administrator changes what a province does and even plans

Alex Lefrank, S.J. Collaboration & Ignatian Freedom
Illustrates how colleagues together shape an ignatian spirituality

Documents from the Consultation

Some Agreed Conclusions, from the Minutes, 70; A Hymn of Praise, 80; Maurice Giuliani's "Ignatian Spirituality," 85.

My Turn

Pasquale T. Giordano, S.J. The Ignatian Circle
Details one group's experience of ongoing formation in giving Exercises

One Last Word

Differences exist between finding a big work and finding the magis